From The Editor

Susan Daufeldt

This is a hard editorial to write -

I need to take a step back from my service to the bonsai community to allow for time and energy to address of pressing personal matters. I'm still around, but the Newsletter will not be produced until we can find someone willing and able to do layout. If you are that person, please contact me or another member of the IBA Board. If no one steps forward, I may be able to resume production of the newsletter at some point, but I can't make a commitment to do do at this time.

Information about club events can be found on the website. We will continue to meet on the third Saturday of each month at the Des Moines Botanical Garden. Club members will be notified of any sudden changes via email, otherwise keep an eye on the website.

Don't forget about the Reiman Garden Show in November. But we will NOT be hosting the MABA convention next spring.

Hope to see you soon. Blessings!
